    And he said, "A staff."
- 3 Then He said, "Throw it on the ground." So he threw it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it.
- 4 But the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand and grasp it by its tail" —so he stretched out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his hand.

29 Then Moses said to Hobab [Jethro] the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out to the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you'; come with us and we will do you good, for the LORD has promised good concerning Israel."

30 But he said to him, "I will not come, but rather will go to my own land and relatives."

31 Then he said, "Please do not leave us, inasmuch as you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you will be as eyes for us.

- 32 "So it will be, if you go with us, that whatever good the LORD does for us, we will do for you."
- 33 Thus they set out from the mount of the LORD three days' journey, with the ark of the covenant of the LORD journeying in front of them for the three days, to seek out a resting place for them.
  - 34 The cloud of the LORD was over them by day when they set out from the camp.

35 Then it came about when the ark set out that Moses said, "Rise up, O LORD! And let Your enemies be scattered, And let those who hate You flee before You."

36 When it came to rest, he said, "Return, O LORD,

- 1 Now the people became like those who complain of adversity in the hearing of the LORD; and when the LORD heard it, His anger was kindled, and the fire of the LORD burned among them and consumed some of the outskirts of the camp.
  - 2 The people therefore cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to the LORD and the fire died out.
    - 3 So the name of that place was called Taberah, because the fire of the LORD burned among them.

4 The rabble who were among them had greedy desires; and also the sons of Israel wept again and said, "Who will give us meat to eat?

22 "There I will meet with you; and from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are upon the ark of the testimony, I will speak to you about all that I will give you in commandment for the sons of Israel.

- 1 Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came early to the tomb, while it was still dark, and saw the stone already taken away from the tomb.
- 2 So she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him."
  - 3 So Peter and the other disciple went forth, and they were going to the tomb.
  - 4 The two were running together; and the other disciple ran ahead faster than Peter and came to the tomb first;

5 and stooping and looking in, he saw the linen wrappings lying there; but he did not go in.

6 And so Simon Peter also came, following him, and entered the tomb; and he saw the linen wrappings lying there,

7 and the face-cloth which had been on His head, not lying with the linen wrappings, but rolled up in a place by itself.

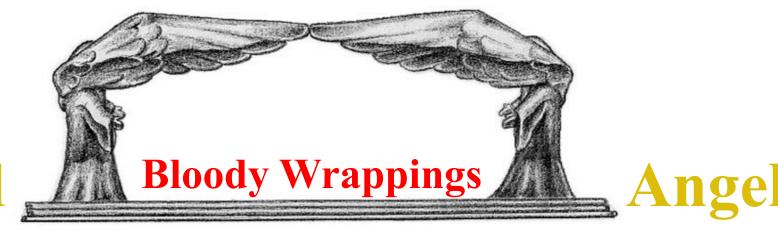

- 8 So the other disciple who had first come to the tomb then also entered, and he saw and believed.
  - 9 For as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that He must rise again from the dead.
- 10 So the disciples went away again to their own homes.

Ίωάνης 20:11-12

11 But Mary was standing outside the tomb weeping; and so, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb;

12 and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet, where the body of yeshua had been lying.

13 And they said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him."

14 When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, and did not know that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" Supposing Him to be the gardener, she said to Him, "Sir, if you have carried Him away, tell me where you have laid Him, and I will take Him away."

16 Jesus said to her, "Mary!"

She turned and said to Him in Hebrew, "Rabboni!" (which means, Teacher.)

t

Ίωάνης 20:1-18

17 Jesus said to her, "Stop clinging to Me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to My brethren and say to them, 'I ascend to My Father and your Father, and My God and your God.'"

18 Mary Magdalene came, announcing to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and that He had said these things to her.

1 Hallelujah! Oh give thanks to the LORD, He is good; His lovingkindness is everlasting. 4 Remember me, O LORD, in Your favor toward Your people; Visit me with Your salvation, 6 We have sinned like our fathers, 7 Our fathers in Egypt did not understand Your wonders but rebelled at the Red Sea. 8 Nevertheless He saved them for the sake of His name, 9 Thus He rebuked the Red Sea & it dried up, 11 The waters covered their adversaries; 12 Then they believed His words & sang His praise. 13 They quickly forgot His works; 14 And tempted God in the desert. 15 So He gave them their request but sent a wasting disease among them. 16 When they became envious of Moses in the camp & of Aaron, 17 The earth opened & swallowed up Dathan, 19 They made a calf in Horeb 20 They exchanged their glory for the image of an ox that eats grass. 21 They forgot God their Savior Who had done great things in Egypt, 23 Therefore He said that He would destroy them, had not Moses stood in the breach before Him, to turn away His wrath from destroying them.

1 After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God; 2 BECAUSE HIS JUDGMENTS ARE TRUE AND RIGHTEOUS; for He has judged the great harlot who was corrupting the earth with her immorality, and HE HAS AVENGED THE BLOOD OF HIS BOND-SERVANTS ON HER." 3 And a second time they said, "Hallelujah! HER SMOKE RISES UP FOREVER AND EVER." 4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!" 5 And a voice came from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you His bond-servants, you who fear Him, the small and the great." 6 Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude and like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns.

EBPAIOY $\Sigma$  3:1-6

1 Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider yeshua, the Apostle and High Priest of our confession;

- 2 He was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as Moses also was in all His house.
- 3 For He has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by just so much as the builder of the house has more honor than the house.
- 4 For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.
  - 5 Now Moses was faithful in all His house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken later;
- 6 but Christ was faithful as a Son over His house—whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the boast of our hope firm until the end.

16 As He was going along by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net in the sea; for they were fishermen.

- 18 The wicked earns deceptive wages, But he who sows righteousness gets a true reward.
  - 22 As a ring of gold in a swine's snout So is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.

- 1 A false balance is an abomination to the LORD, But a just weight is His delight.
  - 2 When pride comes, then comes dishonor, But with the humble is wisdom.
- 18 The wicked earns deceptive wages, But he who sows righteousness gets a true reward.
  - 22 As a ring of gold in a swine's snout So is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.
    - 25 The generous man will be prosperous, And he who waters will himself be watered.
